

TARIFF SECOND TO DEATH OF TRUSTS

Kenyon Tells Democrats Where They Can Accomplish Greatest Good.

Washington, August 9.—"It is more important to control or destroy the trusts than to revise the tariff," declared Senator Kenyon in the Senate today. "If our Democratic friends, by adopting an amendment in accordance to the party platform, would assist in this they would accomplish greater good than by merely reducing the tariff."

If the government cannot control the trusts, he continued, they are powerful enough to destroy this government. When the nation has granted protection and an industry has prospered, the law that protection should be taken from it.

Senator Kenyon declared, "I am engaged in a business transaction against the government from which it received its protection. The concern, he said, capitalized at $20,000,000, has invested only $2,000,000 in its business, and made a profit of $28,000,000 on its stock."

He praised President Wilson for urging tariff legislation on Congress and declared he did not believe the President had attempted to influence legislation improperly. Senator Kenyon declared that if one man were sent to jail it would do more than anything else to check trusts.

Senator Nelson suggested that the unwillingness of juries to convict unscrupulous men was more to blame than the action of judges.

Senator Kenyon replied it had been his experience that great business organizations reached out through all walks of life, and that it was exceedingly difficult to secure juries not subject to their influence.

Senator Borah expressed the opinion that the government was in the formation of a criminal combination, when he said, "I believe the combination has been formed with the connivance and consent of the government. The law," he said, "should specify unlawful acts."

When Senator Kenyon was assailing the aluminum company, Senator Oliver attempted to ask a question.

"Before I yield," said Senator Kenyon, "I would like to ask the Senator if he is interested in the aluminum business of America?"

Senator Oliver replied that the question smacked some of impertinence, and said he was not personally interested in the company.

"Didn't the Senator represent the Aluminum Company before a House committee when it was seeking a water power site on the St. Lawrence River?" demanded Senator Kenyon.

Senator Oliver replied that he had, that he had endeavored to accommodate the company, but that he was "in no way interested" in the aluminum business.

 "NORTON R. SAVAGE."

Douglas E. Taylor, one of the commissioners, concurs in all of the findings of the report except the compensation allowed to James T. Sloan at the rate of $175 per front foot, and the compensation allowed to the Gordon Metal Company. "I am of opinion," he reports, "that an allowance of $75 per front foot would be just compensation for the property of James T. Sloan and that $75 per front foot would be just compensation for the property of the Gordon Metal Company taken in these proceedings. The difference between the valuation and that of the associate, as to the Sloan property, is based upon the fact that no basement can be built on this property, and the excessive cost of foundation for any large structure, and the permanent passage of water across the property. The Gordon Metal Company property on Fourteenth Street, value $15 per front foot, Fourteenth Street, by full depth, is based on the irregularity of shape due to railroad encroachment and undesirable foundations.

GRAVE FEARS IN MEXICO CITY.

BY N. A. JENNINGS.

Mexico City, August 9.—Grave fears are expressed for the personal safety of Envoys Lind and Bryan, who are on a trip to the capital, as it is likely their presence will stir the people to extreme action after his having been declared persona non grata, although he undoubtedly will receive police protection here.

Frederico Gamboa took the oath today as Foreign Minister.

La Tribuna, the principal evening paper, closed today the government for publishing a big story of fighting at Aguas Calientes.

Great preparations are being made for the Huerta manifestation and parade of tomorrow. It promises to be the biggest thing of its kind since the triumphal entry of Madero. Unless unforeseen developments occur, it will not be anti-American in character, although no American will take part, as has been proposed.

Germany Is Critical. [Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Berlin, August 9.—The official circles here the Mexican situation is regarded as extremely critical, and much anxiety is expressed as to the possible consequences to German interests. In the press there is a tendency to criticize the American government for the course it is now taking, after what is considered a long period of temporizing and delay.

The National Zeitung to-night quotes a diplomatic official especially familiar with Mexican affairs as saying: "The sending of Special Envoy Lind, who speaks neither French nor Spanish, and who never before set foot in Central America, and who knows nothing about Mexico and her people, has astonished circles interested in Mexican affairs."

The National Zeitung says a war originated under such circumstances would be indefensible.

"It is possible effects on Germany," it says, "must not be underestimated."

Smith Causes Sensation. The charges of Smith caused a sensation on the floor of the nation's highest legislative body.

"I say," said Senator Smith, with warmth, that Sherbourne G. Hopkins, an attorney of this city, paid counsel for the Constitutionalists, who drew $30,000 from the Madero administration for services, has had the ear of the State Department in the past and present administration. Bryan Summerfield, a German citizen, personal friend of President Madero and of his widow, for two years has been lobbying to influence American action in Mexico, and is now in Washington assisting in propaganda on behalf of the Constitutionalists.

Democrats immediately began an effort to stir discussion of the Mexican question. Senator Smith would not be checked off.

"I claim," he retorted to Democratic protests, "that this attorney has attempted to influence the Department of State. I believe he had much to do with the removal of Ambassador Wilson. If the Senate wants proof, let it summon these two men and expose this plot."

Senator James characterized the statements of Senator Smith as a serious charge against the State Department. Senator Stevenson wanted to know why the matter had not been brought up in the Committee on Foreign Relations when Secretary Bryan was present instead of in the open Senate.

"I said the State Department, not the secretary," replied Mr. Smith.

Well, the Senator knows that the secretary of the department," retorted Mr. Stevenson warily.

"I have heard it said so, but I am not sure of it," said Mr. Smith.

ALLEN LAND BILL OPERATIVE TODAY

Webb Again Explains That California Is Merely Following Lead of Other States.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 San Francisco, August 9.—California's alien land bill, which prevents aliens holding title to land from owning land in the State, becomes operative to-morrow. In discussing the measure to-night, Attorney-General U. S. Webb said:

"Hysteria and the interposition of the Federal government here gave the impression that California was inaugurating revolutionary and entirely new discriminatory legislation. As a matter of fact, California was merely following the lead of twelve or more of her sister States in the Union."

The Federal government, for its part, has no objection to the measure for its prohibition of the terms which exist between the United States and other governments. California, without raising the question how far the Federal power extends, merely accepted the law laid down by the Federal government, and in that was doing what twelve other States had done.

"The law was not predicated upon any assumption of race prejudice or alien hostility, and solely upon the question of race undebatability."

Chinda Sena Bryan. Washington, August 9.—The Japanese ambassador called to see Secretary Bryan late today, making his second visit within forty-eight hours.

The former visit of the ambassador, Thursday, was explained by the State Department as being the usual call of courtesy on the day of his appointment, although it is well known what the reply is.

Chinda Sena Bryan to-day, in arrangements with Mr. Bryan to discuss a formal discussion of the Japanese problem early next week.

Winchester, Va., August 9.—Harry Greenwalt, alias "The Kid," a former Winchester yeoman who was stabbed by another yeoman during a battle with knives near Charlottesville, W. Va., last night, has been taken to the Winchester Hospital, where he is recovering from his wounds.

In spite of the fact his throat was slashed from ear to ear and windpipe torn out, Greenwalt stated in writing that a heavily-built man, whom he called "Mack," stabbed him and killed the one-legged yeoman whose body was found in a pasture field. The latter had been looking for "Mack" sticks. A suspect named Keny is being held. "Mack" is being hunted by officers of surrounding counties in Virginia and West Virginia.

Obstinate Acne Quickly Yields

Fine Remedy that Clears Skin of Pimples on Cheeks, Temples, Sides of Nose and Chin.

Acne attacks the glandular structure of the skin, more particularly those tiny glands that secrete fat. It is a disease that the S. S. S. the famous blood purifier is most active in its influence.

There is one ingredient in S. S. S., the purpose of which it is to stimulate the natural repair work of the blood is to remove from the blood the nutrient that makes new skin and thus eliminates all irritants, acids and parasites that inflame the glands. There is a natural tendency of the fine network of blood vessels in the skin to throw off impurities, but where a persistent inflammatory process has invaded the skin, the natural repair work of the blood is interfered with. It requires the stimulating activity of S. S. S. to overcome such morbid conditions. If you have troubled with acne, do not despair of a cure.

You can get S. S. S. in any drug store, but insist upon having it. The great Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., prepares the famous S. S. S. and you should take no chance by permitting anyone to recommend a substitute. And if your blood condition is such that you would like to consult a specialist, freely, address the Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Company, 131 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

OBITUARY

Mrs. H. H. Travers. Heathsville, Va., August 9.—Mrs. H. H. Travers, wife of Captain H. H. Travers, of Covart, died at the Maryland University Hospital in Baltimore yesterday, following an operation for cancer of the remains will be interred in Melrose Methodist Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

ATWOOD.—On July 18, 1913, at 8:30 P. M., just while the evening twilight had dimmed into darkness, the expected but unwelcome messenger of death came and took from our midst a noble and sweet soul. One who had adorned any home or community.

Matthew, Va., on August 18, 1845. She was born in the same home in which she died. On July 18, 1913, just as the sun was setting, she was approaching her seventy-fourth year. She was the only living son of seven children. Her father, Mr. H. H. Travers, and her mother, Mrs. John H. Travers, both of whom she loved dearly, preceded her in death. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Charnutt, survive the son and daughter, the father having departed this life more than a year ago, on March 24, 1912.

Since the death of his lamented father, Lamar's greatest ambition had been to follow in his footsteps. He often said, in the home and business circles, and no youth of his age ever came nearer doing so than he. His was the greatest comfort to his devoted mother and sisters. He had enjoyed good health and was struck with that dreadful malady, typhoid fever, and with the aid of his mother and sisters, he had fought bravely for about three weeks, and his life for the inevitable, and his Heavenly Father, to return no more.

On Sunday afternoon funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Hubbard, assisted by Dr. George B. Taylor, at Liberty Church, of which deceased was a member. After services, in the presence of the sorely stricken family and distressed friends, the body was laid to rest in the family cemetery, where it will lie in wait for the resurrection.

No more mournful occasion was ever witnessed, and the family and friends, planted flowers upon his grave, and watered them with their tears of sorrow, to pay the last tribute to him whose death seemed to cut a deep furrow in the hearts of all who loved him.

The entire community mingles their sorrow with the family in their bereavement, and mourns with the kindred and neighbors who had been in the loss of their only boy, and with the sisters in the loss of their only brother.

Lamar Atwood possessed a manly nature, and was deservedly popular with old and young alike.

Good manners attended his every action. He was kind, warm, and did kind things as a part of his nature. He possessed a striking resemblance to his father, whose many virtues this worthy son had begun to exemplify in his youthful life.

"Friend after friend departs: Who hath not lost a friend? That heart and soul have been hearts That find no rest again." R. F. BURKE.

FRITZSCHE.—Sacred to the memory of our darling mother, MRS. M. R. FRITZSCHE, who entered life eternally two years ago to-day, August 10, 1911.

Gone, but not forgotten. Thou shalt never be. Resting in peace with Jesus. Through all eternity. HER CHILDREN.

FORD.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, JAMES A. FORD, who departed this life two years ago to-day, August 10, 1911.

God called him home, it was His will, but in our hearts he lives still; His memory is as dear to-day As in the hour he passed away. HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

DEATHS

WALLACE.—Entered into rest, August 9, at 3 A. M. BETTY CROUCH, widow of H. H. Wallace. Funeral from her home, 207 West Grace, at 5:30 P. M. TO-DAY. Atlanta and Bristol papers please copy.

JUSTIS.—MR. HENSON P. JUSTIS, for many years a resident of Richmond, but recently a citizen of Blackstone, Va., died suddenly at his home in that place on Tuesday, August 6, in his fifty-fourth year. He had been in poor health for some time, but his death was unexpected, and was a great shock to his kindred and friends. Mr. Justis was a faithful Christian, a member of the Baptist Church at Blackstone, where he had taught a large business men's class in the Sunday school, and was greatly honored and beloved by them. He had many friends, both in Blackstone, in Powhatan County, where he resided in his early life, and in Richmond, where he formerly resided. In the family his relations were those of a devoted father, a kind and helpful brother, and a loving friend. He was married to Miss Bettie A. Wallace. The funeral will be held at Bethel Church, in Powhatan, on Thursday, August 14, at 12 o'clock. The interment will be in the family lot in Bethel Cemetery.

HOLMES.—Died, at her residence, No. 1011 State Street, Fulton, August 8, at 3:10 o'clock P. M. MRS. JANE H. HOLMES. Funeral at Rising Mount Zion Church, Denny Street, Fulton, TO-DAY at 12 o'clock.

PRICE.—Died, at her residence, 321 South Third Street, at 10:30 A. M. PRICE, widow of Rev. Philip Barbour Price. Funeral notice later.
